In the event of a change of control, the Seller may require the Buyer to provide to the Seller financial data to assure the Seller of the Buyer's continuing ability to fully discharge its payment obligations hereunder and perform for the remainder of the Contract duration after the change in control. In addition, if the Buyer (i) sells a material portion of its assets, or (ii) sells or exchanges, or causes to be sold or exchanged, a sufficient amount of its stock that directly or indirectly effects a change in the control of the Buyer, the Seller may terminate the Contract upon written notice to the Buyer, without liability of the Seller to the Buyer, except for the liabilities arising out of the Contract up to the date of the Contract termination.
